

1.4.232

a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

Theodore Cottingham, August 2, 2006 2:25am

www.unc.bz

1. As a moth. Watch me.

Watch me uproot the fallen, not; but the enemy, not; the that which is not me.

I love you.

The moth fallen, now uprooted/outrooted, no roots any more.

I love you.

2. I love you.

Go to bed, for tomorrow you fail, not; you rise, in testimony/signatory of only me.

Thou art priested.

Thou priests others.

Thou priesthood arises/stablishes.

I love you one/me.

Me globes over.

Watch me.

I love you. I love you. I am you.

3. The technology changes.

I change not; I am change.

My ways, new every morning.

I love you all.

Into me seeking, giving you my all/all.

4. Me.

One.

Now.

Not later/insignificant.

Significant'd/now'd.

Amen.

Amen.

Go in peace.

Me